
JENS HECHT, CFA
MANAGING PARTNER

WITH KIRCHHOFF SINCE

January 2000

SHORT VITA

Jens Hecht studied economics at the universities of Augsburg and Hohenheim. In 2001 he received the American professional title for financial analysts and portfolio managers "Chartered Financial Analyst" (CFA) from the CFA Institute.

Jens Hecht has been advising medium-sized companies on corporate finance, the preparation and execution of capital market transactions as well as investor relations and financial reporting since 1995. In the process, he has supported more than 30 successful IPOs and advised numerous DAX, MDAX, SDAX and TecDAX companies on their capital market communication.

After graduating, he initially worked at the corporate finance boutique Blättchen & Partner AG, Leonberg, before joining Kirchhoff Consult AG at the beginning of 2000.

Jens Hecht is the author of numerous studies and articles on the capital market. These have appeared in Börsen-Zeitung, Handelsblatt, Wirtschaftswoche, FAZ, Platow Börse, Going Public Magazin and Die Aktiengesellschaft, among others.

GOOD COMMUNICATION FOR ME IS ...

... well-founded in terms of content and to the point.
